Chapter 79.2

Prelude (of The War)

Bi Xian went to Hai Yu, so the Wu Sheng Men organization should change its Master? Shang Jun curiously asked, "Who is the Master of Wu Sheng Men organization now?"

Wei Xi shook his head and answered, "I am not clear, as the new Master is very mysterious, but he is very trustworthy and is still constantly providing news to us." Before it was only a scrap of news each month, but within the last half year there has been a lot more news, especially news related to the inside palace.

Shang Jun nodded his head and said, "Since the Master has changed to a new one, you can look for an opportunity to discuss the terms again to see what he wants." To him, the news about Cang Yue is very important, so he cannot lose this connection. Since there is a new Master, he must want his own benefits so Shang Jun is willing to meet his terms because it is worth it!

Wei Xi understood and nodded his head.

Shang Jun still wanted to say something but after seeing Wei Xi's exhausted face, he ultimately said, "You are tired, go rest now."

Putting down the teacup, Wei Xi answered, "Yes. I will continue to check on any news regarding the two generals." After he finished speaking, he hurriedly left again.

The war is a forgone conclusion, so when can he intervene and how can he intervene? Helping out in the open or in secret? Is it worthwhile to bet on Xuanyuan Yi? He must think more on how to seize this opportunity!

After Wei Xi left, the door to the study was pushed open again and Qi Feng Hua, who was dressed in white clothing, seemed to look even weaker in the cold winter. He energetically walked over to Shang Jun's side and saw him lost in thought so he bumped into his shoulder once. He took out a dark red colored pill and excitedly passed it on before he eagerly said, "What are you thinking about that you are so lost in thought?! Continue eating it."

Shang Jun looked at the stuff in front of him and forced a smile to say, "My injury has already healed." This past month he had eaten more medicine than he had in the previous ten years!

Qi Feng Hua took the medicine and stuffed it into Shang Jun's hand as he mocked to say, "You don't know anything; how many people can only dream about getting this elixir? I can still cause trouble for you, so eat this quickly. This medicine can restore your inner powers to around 90% of what your original powers were. I will leave soon, so you have to take care of yourself properly. I can't say for sure, but your martial arts may be able to go to the next level even more." It was only with great difficulty that he was able to find those medicinal ingredients and after perfecting the medicine for over half a month, he finally got it, but here it was shunned by his (SJ) face!

Shang Jun naturally knew that Qi Feng Hua's medicine was really good medicine, but who wanted to eat medicine when they were fine ah?! Meeting Qi Feng Hua's threatening gaze, Shang Jun clenched his teeth and then took the pill and swallowed it down. After unwillingly taking the pill, Shang Jun was not a forgiving person either, so he said, "Where do you want to go? Wondering everywhere to harm the whole world?"

Qi Feng Hua gave him an innocent look and answered, "I have left the family for 18 years, so I want to go visit." In order to save Xiao Jun, he had already missed paternal grandfather's 70th birthday, but no matter what, he still should go back and visit. Even though he has not seen them for a long time, and he is not close to them, but they are still his closest relatives after all.

When Little Uncle followed Grand Master up the mountain, he had been only one month old, so Shang Jun had forgotten that he still had a family. Thinking about Qi Feng Hua's family name, Shang Jun teasingly said, "Your family name is Qi, do you happen to have any family relations with Dong Yu's Prime Minister Qi?" Dong Yu's Qi family name was famous within the four seas and in those days, the famous name of Qi Zhong Lin was known to everyone. Even though several decades have passed since then, but his name is still famous.

Shang Jun was only teasing with his words, but Qi Feng Hua indifferently answered, "Qi Zhong Lin is my paternal grandfather."

Shang Jun was stumped for words; they really do have family relations? Then Little Uncle and Shu Qing are cousins? This world is so small. Shang Jun pretended to cup his hands in greetings and smiled as he said, "I have been disrespectful with your famous name."

"You, stop teasing me." What famous name? Paternal grandfather's famous name is just paternal grandfather's name and it does not have any relation to him! Looking at the sky, Qi Feng Hua freely smiled and said, "I am leaving now, Xiao Jun."

Shang Jun got up to send him off. Even though they had been bickering since they were young, their feelings were actually very good. Qi Feng Hua waved his hand without turning his head while he walked before he said in a relaxed way, "No need to send me off, I know the route. You need to pay attention and take care of your own body, so there is no reason for me to return and harm you." Between them, there was no need to have a vain courtesy?!

There was no lack of partying in this whole world, so one could always accompany the other once, but no one was destined to accompany anyone for a lifetime. He had already known this principle a long time ago, so he could only push away the melancholy feeling due to their parting in his heart. Listening to his words, Shang Jun stood in the courtyard while he smiled as he watched that white shadow drift away.

Even though he was surrounded by the cold wind, he did not feel cold at all. The fiery thorn flowers were red again and this year they seemed to be more enchanting and vigorous than in previous years. As he caressed the scarlet petals, he wondered if the upcoming fierce battle would be like this sea of red flowers. Shang Jun's body was lightly trembling for no reason, and one did not know if it was because of excitement or fear.

Sian's notes:

I guess this Wu Sheng Men organization is similar to the "spy" agency that Bi Xian used to own. Similar to Shen Xiao Yun's "spy" agency that Murong Shu Qing was using in her book to get some information. The literal meaning of wusheng is silent while men can be translated to sect or organization.

So I supposed that Bi Xian decided to move to Hai Yu so he can be a side husband for Lan Yi. Lol...

Oh boy!! I think I have a premonition that the new Master is Xiao Zong Qing???? This is only my guess as I'm translating as I'm reading the chapter so your guess is as good as mine. But I think I can connect the dots that XZQ has been busy with who knows what for the last two years & he wants to prove that he can be useful to SJ. Plus he doesn't want to help with the Xiao family business... We'll see if my guess is correct or not. ☹️

Ahhh, that was the reason why Qi Feng Hua missed his paternal grandfather's 70th birthday! He had to save our family Xiao Jun so Murong Shu Qing missed meeting her maternal cousin at that time. I can't remember how old MSQ is so I'm not sure who's older QFH or MSQ. The original body of MSQ is young, I think even though the actual soul is already 27 yo. Maybe they're the same age or MSQ is slightly younger like 16 or 17 yo. Actually after that sentence from SJ, MSQ is older than QFH because the author used jie (older sister) di (younger brother) after SJ found out that QFH is related to the famous Qi family of Dong Yu.

Again with the appellation here. Haha.. SJ calls QFH's Master shi (master) gong (grandfather) because SJ teacher is QFH's senior brother. So I have no idea how to translate this appellation & I'm just going to call him Grand Master, ok?! ☹️

While we're at it and for those of you who like to read my blabbering, Qi Feng Hua's name consists of interesting characters in Chinese. The word Feng means wind which is mostly used for men, but the Hua word actually means flower which is always used for women. What cool is that a combination of both Feng & Hua actually means magnificent which is mostly used by men because it isn't a feminine name at all.
