Chapter 86.6

Shu Qing's Visit

Early the next morning, Xuanyuan Yi and his party, Shang Jun, Shang Xiao, Murong Shu Qing and Qin Xiu Zhi were all sitting in the reception hall, respectively. Xuanyuan Yi who had been silent last night, got up and straightforwardly said, "Master Shang, I don't want to waste anyone's time anymore. Breaking this battle formation is very important to our army, so I implore you to help us. If Master feels that this has nothing to do with you, then Xuanyuan Yi will not put you in a difficult position anymore."

While blowing the tea in his hand, Shang Jun smiled and asked, "Tell me what you think; if I help you break the formation, are you sure to win?"

Is he interested now? Pei Che secretly glanced at Murong Shu Qing who was idly eating pastries on the side as if she did not hear any of their conversation at all. Shang Jun had showed an unyielding attitude last night, so why did it change this morning?!

Xuanyuan Yi loudly laughed and said, "I already have a new offensive strategy; you command the front to break the formation, then our army will divide into two groups. We will go all the way through Qu Shan mountain to bypass the range of the formation and directly attack from the rear, with their main focus as breaking the formation at that time. Our army from the rear will be able to attack them unexpectedly by surprise. If you break the formation successfully, we will rear, with their main focus as breaking the formation at that time. Our army from the rear will be able to attack them unexpectedly by surprise. If you break the formation successfully, we will attack from all sides and be able to win. Another group of people will go through the Xue Shan mountain from behind and taking advantage of our army's battle with Cang Yue at that time, burn their provisions to inflict damage using the same tactic they used against us."

Shu Qing was right; Xuanyuan Yi does have a good strategy, but... Shang Jun put down the tea in his hand, changed his carefree attitude and seriously analyzed, "The three-way attack is indeed a good strategy, but first, how do you know the actual place where the enemy stores their army provisions? Secondly, this strategy requires a lot of time, so can you guarantee that the timing will be right at the perfect time? Thirdly, I have met this person, You Xiao and based on my understanding of him, he will never set up just one battle formation, so you can't rest assured. Therefore, is your three-way attack feasible at all? I'm afraid it will fall into the trap of the other side."

His insight caused Li Ming to withdraw his expression of disapproval and caused Xuanyuan Yi's eyes to light up in excitement. He took the topography map out of his sleeve that he carried with him and spread it out in front of Shang Jun as he said, "Our army has ascertained the location of their granary; as for the attack time, it starts when you break the formation. Once you enter the formation and give a signal, the other two groups will start their attack. As far as You Xiao, I have been fighting with him for two months now, so I know that he is cunning, but he also has this one weakness; that is, he is too arrogant. He set up such a big battle formation and is so confident that no one can break his formations. So, after this formation, there is another secret trap mechanism and then there is no other defense, so therefore, the three-way attack is still feasible."

Shang Jun looked at the topographic map carefully; the markings were clearly marked and the routes were detailed. He immediately felt admiration in his heart towards Xuanyuan Yi; he is indeed worthy to be the general of Dong Yu and it will be difficult for You Xiao to win. Having more confidence in Xuanyuan Yi, Shang Jun immediately smiled and said, "Alright, I promise to break the formation."

"Really?!" Li Ming exclaimed; he is agreeing so easily?

Pei Che was also amazed by Shang Jun's change; he was still watching Murong Shu Qing who was still freely staying out of their conversation. Is it really not because of her? What is her relationship with Piao Miao Manor after all?! She actually has a lot of influence on Shang Jun!

Shang Jun smilingly said, "Do I look like I am joking? Let's go. We will solve this matter as soon as possible." He can't wait!

The group got up and Qin Xiu Zhi, who had been sitting next to him, suddenly stood up and cupped his fists to ask, "I wonder if I can go with you all?" Qin Xiu Zhi sighed bitterly; he should like Shu Qing or even the lively Shang Xiao was also fine, but it is Shang Jun whom he thinks the most of in his mind. He already knew what his feelings were since last night, so he should run far away from him (SJ), but he cannot control himself and just wanted to follow him all the way. He admits that he is crazy.

Before Shang Jun had time to speak, Shang Xiao jumped up and said, "I want to go too."

Shang Jun shook his head helplessly and said with a smile, "Xiao Er, this is not going to be fun."

"Older brother, let me go!" She knew that this battle with Cao Xiao was about to erupt!

"Older brother, let me go." She knew that this battle with Cang Yue was about her parents' revenge so she must go.

Shang Jun wanted to say something, but was stunned by Shang Xiao's determined gaze, so he finally nodded his head gently.

Pei Che felt that the atmosphere was a little heavy, so he said with a smile, "Alright, since everyone wants to contribute, let's go together."

Who would have known that his good intention was exchanged with Shang Xiao's careless sneer, "We are not helping you, so troublesome." At this time, the atmosphere turned lively and there was a burst of laughter in the reception hall, but Pei Che remained dumbfounded. Who did he provoke again?!!

As these people were laughing, Shu Qing saw a very interesting scene; Xiu Zhi's pair of glossy eyes never left Jun, perhaps Jun's spring is approaching quickly.

Sian's notes:

Deng, it's such a long chapter!!! So that last sentence about SJ's spring is approaching means his love life is coming as "spring" is usually associated with love. Our family MSQ has already seen the sparks that are sparkling from QXZ's eyes. Lol...

Who is also seeing another "spark" in Shang Xiao and Pei Che? Lol... These "couple" is more like a cat and a dog couple. ☹️ But I think it's interesting to match Pei Che & Shang Xiao together, in my humble opinion.
