

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 139.2

Asking for Help (Part 3)

Xiu Zhi is here too?! What about the others? Could it be that...

Looking down at the jade Buddha pendant in her hand and thinking of Xiao Xiao's face like a flower at that time plus Shang Jun's elegant smile, Shu Qing's heart was caught by something. This pendant was to pray for her safety forever. Happiness, which was especially given to her, now that the pendant was intact and returned to her hand, where was its master?!

Quickly opening the letter in her hand that held only a few lines of words, Shu Qing's face became darker as she was reading it. Shang Jun actually arrived in Tian Cheng City, but his life or death was uncertain now?!

Shu Qing stared at the paper in silence and Lang Yue could not guess what she was thinking. She knelt on the ground again and choked up as she said, "Miss Shu Qing, Lang Yue knows (about your situation), but I'm begging of you at this time and making a very embarrassing request. The Gentleman has also warned me that I must never come to disturb you, but we really can't think of other ways."

Folding the letter and putting it in her sleeve, Shu Qing bent down again to support Lang Yue. Lang Yue did not dare to play pulling with her anymore, so she quickly got up to support Shu Qing. Shu Qing patted her hand gently and softly said, "Alright, I see that you are also tired, so go and rest first."

Shu Qing neither agreed nor refused, so Lang Yue could not figure her out. After taking two steps, she stopped again, but Shu Qing raised a soft smile and waved her hand as she said indifferently, "Go, I will have some arrangements."

"Yes." Lang Yue lowered her head and walked towards the bamboo house as she followed Yan Yu. Knowing Miss Shu Qing, she should already have an idea in her heart. If she continued to stay here, it was not worth it either.

The bamboo forest had restored its tranquility; the sky was red but it had long been swallowed by the sea. The moon was not clear and the sun had set; between the sky and earth which were both colored gray, at this moment the curtain of bright blue sea along with the verdant bamboo also became gray in color.

Shu Qing was taken into a warm and solid embrace when beside her ear there was an overbearing growl that had not been heard for a long time, "I forbid you to go back!"

Shu Qing gently curled the corners of her lips and did not say anything, but leaned comfortably in Xuanyuan Yi's arms. She was looking into the distance where she could gradually not tell the horizon line between heaven and earth. After a long time she said in a low voice, "The first time I saw Shang Jun, it was on a snowy mountain. The blizzard was about to come and at that time, he fell into a coma in the snow. He was still holding Xiao Xiao tightly in his arms and while Xiao Xiao was wearing a thick padded jacket layer after layer, he was only wearing a thin single coat. At that time I was thinking, what kind of person was this? In order to protect his loved one, he would not mind losing his life. So I saved him and became friends with him. For so many years he is the person I admire the most, the person I can't let go of and the person whom I feel sorry for the most."

"Are you feeling anxious?!" Xuanyuan Yi clenched Shu Qing's hand tightly as his face was already dark. Due to Shu Qing's anxiousness, he felt even worse now.

Feeling the unsteady breath of the man behind her, Shu Qing slightly smiled yet still replied calmly, "Yes, I'm anxious! I have never seen a person who is so cruel to himself, taking all the responsibilities, sufferings and sadness as he has done. He bears it on his own. Although she and I have never officially become sisters, in my heart, she is my sister."

"Sister?!" Xuanyuan Yi was surprised, forgetting the unhappiness in his heart, he asked in disbelief, "You said that Shang Jun is...a woman?!" That handsome and elegant Shang Jun was actually a woman?! If it was really true, it really would cause the world's men to be ashamed.

"She is." She should not have said the real identity of Shang Jun, but if she did not explain clearly to Xuanyuan Yi, she was afraid that he would not let her go. So turning around, Shu Qing looked at Xuanyuan Yi's deep eyes and softly asked, "I can't look at my relatives in danger and not save them. Yi, you understand my heart, don't you?"

Of course he understood that Shu Qing only looked cold and indifferent, but as long as it was someone she cared about, she must protect them completely. Today, he would not be able to stop her, so touching Shu Qing's big abdomen with his hand, Xuanyuan Yi sighed, "I'm worried about your body. This is a long journey to Cang Yue. You can't stand the wind and waves on the sea alone. If you must go, let me replace you to go!"

Shu Qing grabbed Xuanyuan Yi's big hand, stroked her abdomen gently and smiled faintly, "According to Xiao Xiao's letter, I'm afraid things are not that simple. I will take good care of myself and protect our baby, besides aren't you still with me?"

Looking at Shu Qing's soft and beautiful profile, Xuanyuan Yi pondered for a moment and finally compromised and asked, "When do you want to leave?" Qing Er's current soft personality was in respect for him and in her heart, she had already make a decision the moment she saw Lang Yue.

Yi finally agreed, so Shu Qing secretly sighed and squeezed Xuanyuan Yi's hand as she smiled happily, "Tomorrow morning, but I want to go to the palace first. You can let Yan Yu and Cang Su make the preparations."

Into the palace? Thinking of Qing Er's current Prime Minister status, she really should say something to Xi Lie Yue before leaving, so helping Shu Qing get into the prepared carriage, Xuanyuan Yi replied, "I know, you can go first."

"Alright." Stepping into the carriage, what Shu Qing was thinking about was actually not Xi Lie Yue, but Qin Xiu Zhi. He came back for Shang Jun's sake! What did he want to do?

Sian's notes:

Wow!!! MSQ is pregnant... Wohoo... Finally our other female friend, the Queen Xi Lie Yue will show up soon...