Deployment (Part 1)

Seeing Shu Qing's face clearly, everyone was dumbfounded except for Shang Xiao. Although they never wanted to believe she was really dead, but when they saw Shu Qing alive standing in front of them, even Wei Xi and not to mention a calm person like Yu Feng, could not hide the ripple in his eyes.

The woman was Murong Shu Qing, the man was....

Pei Che walked up to the man and stared at his face that was covered by a black veil, when his voice trembled uncontrollably, "Xuanyuan, is that you?!"

The man grabbed the brim of his hat and raised his hand.

With sword eyebrows, starry eyes, proud nose and thin lips, while even the corners of his lips showed his unruly temperament, if this person was not Xuanyuan Yi, who else could he be?!

Xuanyuan? Long Yi Hai's eyes flashed. Could this person be Xuanyuan Yi, the famous general from Dong Yu who died at Lin Feng Guan border last year?! He is actually not dead!!

Sure enough it was him! Pei Che slammed Xuanyuan Yi's shoulder with a heavy punch and cursed in a low voice, "Damn you! You don't even tell me when you leave and there's no letter, I've been worried for so long!" It could be said that they grew up together and were good brothers. After so many years of near-death experiences (in the war), the tacit understanding between the two of them was self-evident. Otherwise, he would not have casually found a person wearing Xuanyuan's armor that was beyond recognition and reported that the country general died in the battle to the imperial court. It was just that Xuanyuan did not leave any clues and no one actually saw him, so how could he not be worried?!

Xuanyuan Yi also raised his hand and patted Pei Che on the shoulder vigorously without any extra explanation; the friendship between the two men was fully revealed.

Her shoulders gradually felt wet as Shu Qing stroked Shang Xiao's hair and said softly, "Let's all go in and talk."

Shang Xiao raised her head and wiped away her tears; she said that she would stop crying and now she is crying again, she is really useless! Shang Xiao nodded quickly, dragged Shu Qing's hand and walked into the room, "Older sister Shu Qing, come quickly."

Following Shang Xiao's hurried footsteps, Shu Qing only took a few steps before suddenly stroking her abdomen and stopped, while her brows furrowed. These days she had been on the road almost day and night, she was really tired and her stomach hurt from time to time, but she was afraid that Yi would be worried, so she never said anything.

Although Shu Qing had tried her best to control her expression, Xuanyuan Yi was still so frightened that he hurriedly put her in his arms and said anxiously, "Qing Er, how are you?! What's wrong with you?" He really shouldn't have listened to let her travel day and night; it literally shortened the half-month journey into a few days! If there was an emergency for this child, he would not forgive himself!

Shu Qing took a few deep breaths and finally, the pain she felt had just now passed, so she shook her head gently and signaled that she was fine.

Shang Xiao also finally noticed that Shu Qing, who had always been thin, had a prominent belly and widened her eyes in shock. Shang Xiao asked hesitantly, "Older sister Shu Qing, you...you are pregnant... "

"Yeah." Shu Qing smiled and nodded.

Seeing Shu Qing leaning on Xuanyuan Yi's arms tiredly, her hand had been stroking her lower abdomen all the time. Her face looked a little bad, and she could not hide the tiredness in her eyes, so Shang Xiao lowered her head and choked, "I... Older Sister Shu Qing, I'm sorry... I'm sorry!" She did not know what else to say, Older Sister Shu Qing was pregnant and still running around like this, what they owed her would never be repaid.

Gently breaking free from Xuanyuan Yi's embrace, Shu Qing took Shang Xiao's hand and comforted, "Fool, in my heart, you and Jun are my relatives and I am as concerned about his safety as you are, so I am not sorry now. At this time, the most important thing for us is to work together to rescue him. Besides, am I not standing in front of you now?!"

"Yeah." With red eyes, Shang Xiao nodded vigorously, carefully supporting Shu Qing's hand as Shang Xiao said softly, "Older Sister Shu Qing, let's go first and sit down and talk, you walk slowly, slowly.... "

Shu Qing could not help laughing, as she was moving slowly, but this group of big men, including Xuanyuan Yi, all thought the speed was very good. She was also sensible and obediently did not say anything anyway as there was no hurry on this short road.

After finally moving over to the flower hall, Shang Xiao helped her to the soft couch next to her, while adding a cushion for her, she said, "Older Sister Shu Qing, sit down quickly."

Shu Qing sat down with a smile. After feeling better, she immediately asked, "Yu Feng, how long has Shang Jun been missing? What happened before he disappeared? What have you found these days?"

Yu Feng was originally by Shu Qing's side and her appearance also calmed his heart that had been anxious for many days. Hearing Shu Qing's question, Yu Feng briefly explained what happened during this time.

When she was on the boat, she probably asked Qin Xiu Zhi so she must have known a little about the situation. As she looked around, she asked, "You have always mentioned Xiao Zong Qing, the master of Wu Sheng organization, where is he now?" Shu Qing's eyes stopped after a while on only one person, the brocade-clothed man whom she had never seen before, but quickly moved away. According to the legend, this Xiao family master was only in his twenties, so it should not be him.

"Master Xiao was separated from us more than ten days ago. Originally, he would let us know as soon as there was news about Master, but after that day he never appeared again, and the people from the Wu Sheng organization have also disappeared." They did not know what happened or what was going on.
