Ch 144.2

Deployment (Part 1)

Disappeared?! For no reason, how could they disappear? Shu Qing thought for a while and then said to Wei Xi, "Wei Xi, you immediately go to all the Wu Sheng organization strongholds you know and find Xiao Zong Qing. If you can't find him, leave a message saying that Piao Miao Manor has found a way to rescue Shang Jun and let him come over immediately." If something had not happened, as Yu Feng said, out of Xiao Zong Qing's concern for Shang Jun, he would definitely arrive immediately, if not.... then the results would speak for itself.

"Yes." Wei Xi took the order and left.

Shang Xiao could not restrain her excitement, but she did not dare to touch Shu Qing, so she could only ask, "Older Sister Shu Qing, do you really have a way to save my brother?! What is the way?"

Raising a light smile, Shu Qing replied, "I will rescue Shang Jun."

Although Shu Qing did not say anything about the method, the momentum she had as she seemed to be in control caused Shang Xiao to confidently reply, "Well, I believe that Older Sister Shu Qing will be able to rescue my brother!" She knew that with Older Sister Shu Qing's appearance, not only did it give her peace of mind, but it would also enable Yu Feng and Wei Xi to increase their confidence.

"Pei Che, there is something I want to ask for your help with."

Pei Che smiled generously and said, "If you have any orders, just say it sister-in-law."

This guy really did not forget to entertain others all the time, Shu Qing said with a chuckle, "Long Qu Mu sent guards to block the Tian Cheng City and there are also strongholds inside and outside the city. Yan Yu and Cang Su also came with me, but they are just outside the city wall. I would like you to lead them to draw me a map of the distribution of troops inside and outside of Tian Cheng City. I want the map between 11 pm to 1 am."

After listening to Shu Qing's arrangement, he vaguely felt she was going to make a big move this time, so he could not help but become serious and replied, "No problem."

Tian Cheng City had been blocked and it was indeed extremely inconvenient for them to move. Thinking of the tunnel that took three years to build under the city, Yu Feng walked up to Shu Qing, whispered a few words, when Shu Qing exclaimed in surprise, "Really?!"

Yu Feng nodded and Shu Qing secretly sighed; Jun was really amazing, to have dug so many secret passages, now it would be easier for her to act!

Looking outside the house, the moon had already risen, so Shu Qing said, "Yu Feng, help me out of the city to wait for a few people." When she had got off the boat, she sent an urgent note to Murong Xing Hun and Shen Xiao Yun. After calculating the time, the people whom she needed should be here today.

"Who are they?" Who else would come?"

Under the suspicious gazes of Yu Feng and Shang Xiao, Shu Qing smiled and replied, "Hua Yong Qin, the head of the north hall of the Feng Yu Lou building; Feng Yi, the head of the Murong family and one other person you should be very familiar with him, Qin Xiu Zhi."

The city gate was closed, so Qin Xiu Zhi was waiting outside the city to escort the Murong family's goods, while Hai Yu's elite soldiers were dressed as servants. There were so many people that they really needed to be careful.

Shang Xiao was slightly surprised, "Is he really back?" On the day Xiu Zhi left, she found that Xi Mu had not left. She guessed at the time that he would come back again, and she might have wrongly blamed Older Brother Qin. But that Xi Mu was a stinky and hard rock person, and he did not answer any of her questions!

Shu Qing nodded lightly and sighed, "You should thank him." He exchanged the freedom of his own heart.

Shang Xiao did not seem to understand, but still nodded obediently.

Shu Qing gently waved at Xuanyuan Yi, who lowered his head slightly, as she whispered a few words in his ear and then said to Yu Feng, "Yu Feng, hand over your things to Yi, then go outside the city and wait for the others. Let's move."

"Yes." Yu Feng left and Xuanyuan Yi followed him to fetch the map of the secret passage. Shu Qing secretly sighed; there were finally fewer people in this room.

Turning her head slowly, Shu Qing finally met the inquiring gaze that had been silently observing her all night.

He was dressed in a purple brocade robe with a white jade on his waist and an elegant smile on his face. She was facing his eyes that could be described as arrogant, but he was calm and had good self-cultivation. Shu Qing naturally did not miss his undeniable dignity and perseverance between his brows.

Shu Qing bowed slightly, saluting and said, "This must be Prince Rui, right?"

Long Yi Hai smiled in return and praised, "Miss Murong, I've looked up to your name for a long time." He had heard of the Murong family for a long time, but Murong Shu Qing, he had not heard much. However today, his eyes were opened wide; this woman's vision, with her delicate posture, has a serene character and natural charm. As a woman, she is also very courageous and decisive in her actions. No wonder her appearance made this group of people seem to see hope all at once even though she is just an unarmed pregnant woman.

Shu Qing smiled slightly and replied calmly, "Prince Rui's words are too serious, Murong Shu Qing is dead, I'm just a relative of Shang Jun, so Prince Rui can call me Shu Qing."

"Okay." Long Yi Hai also followed suit and said with a smile, "In Miss Shu Qing's deployment, I don't know if there is anything I can do to help you."

"Of course." Shu Qing lowered her voice slightly and replied, "There is one thing that must be done by Prince Rui."

"Tell me what that matter is?" Long Yi Hai was still curious, what would he have to do?!

Sian's notes:

Wow!!! Our MSQ is back & the atmosphere changed from hopeless to energetic!! I love this type of woman who's rarely found in any Chinese novel at all. A strong woman who has brain and knows how to lead a bunch of important men on their assignments!!
