

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 145.1

Deployment (Part 2)

"Tell me what that matter is?" Long Yi Hai was very curious; what did he have to do?!

The corners of Shu Qing's lips were lightly raised and she plainly uttered three words, "Attack the palace."

Shang Xiao opened her mouth wide and looked at Shu Qing in amazement. Although she, like her sister, never forgot about her family feud, she (MSQ) was so open and aboveboard while she casually said those words "attack the palace", that Shang Xiao was not able to react.

Long Yi Hai was taken aback. Once he attacked the palace, if he did not win, he would be dead without a place to die. He would also be charged with committing chaos and usurping the throne. At this present time, both he and Long Qu Mu's strength was obviously very different, so if she had him attacking the palace at this time, would it not be to just let him die?!

He could understand her feelings of wanting to save Shang Jun, but he also wanted to save him (SJ)?! It was just that she should not use others in this way, saying things like this that were enough to destroy his nine generations. Displeased in his heart, Yu Han replied coldly, "Miss is trying to distract the attention and strength of the imperial court in order to rescue Shang Jun, but this is too risky!"

Shu Qing did not care about his change in countenance, and instead leisurely picked up the pillow next to her, carefully put it at the back of her waist and said with a casual low laugh, "Sometimes the arrow is on the string and you can't help but to make a move. All the way from Dong Yu, as far as I know, the army that was defeated in the battle of Lin Feng Guan border has already begun to reorganize. If I read it correctly, Long Qu Mu will transfer them back to the capital. That is an army of 60,000. I don't know the situation about Prince Rui's army..." After speaking, Shu Qing paused for a while, believing that Long Yi Hai should also understand the consequences without her needing to say the words.

As she wished, there was a flash of anxiety in Long Yi Hai's eyes, so Shu Qing raised her head slightly, and looked him in the eye. Her smile did not change, but she coldly spoke with her eyes which had inexplicably exposed the whole truth, and made people to feel pressured, "Since Jun was willing to help Prince Rui, maybe he assumed that Prince Rui must be Cang Yue's hope, and must have the bearing and mind of a prince of a country. Why did Shang Jun fall into danger? Prince Rui should know this better than me. In fact, attacking the palace at this time will not only make it easier for Jun to get out of trouble, but Prince Rui can also take this opportunity to seize power in one fell swoop! You and I also get what we need, so why doesn't Prince Rui consider it first?" His life was precious but Jun's life was worthless!? If he was such a person, it would not be a blessing for Cang Yue if he ascended to the throne in the future.

Shu Qing's words were sharp; even if she had a big belly while leaning on the soft couch, one did not dare to despise her at all. While Long Yi Hai secretly admired her, he also felt unprecedented pressure. This woman was very good at negotiating and very skillful.

In terms of morality, Shang Jun did something to save him, and if he entrusted him with this evasion, he would be an ungrateful person. In planning for a great cause, it had now reached the most critical moment. With her help, he would get twice the result with half the effort, so under such circumstances, how could he say no?!

Long Yi Hai gave a wry smile and replied, "Miss is indeed a business woman."

Apparently, he had already figured it out, so Shu Qing smiled slightly, but insisted on her promise, "What does Prince Rui want?"

Long Yi Hai sighed; she was really different from Shang Jun, as it was much more difficult to convince and impress her. And she had a pair of sharp eyes, as if she could see everything, so Long Yi Hai greeted Shu Qing and replied sternly, "Shang Jun must be rescued, and the matter of attacking the palace can proceed, but it does need to be carefully discussed and weighed before we act on this plan. After all, if we lose, it will not only be me, Long Yi Hai who will be sacrificed, but everyone else will also be in trouble."

Shu Qing was satisfied with his answer, and continued to ask, "How many people are under Prince Rui that we can use?"

Shu Qing had a deep friendship with Feng Yu Lou building, so she would always know about the military strength. If she felt that he was not honest enough, she was afraid that she would not be able to trust him. Long Yi Hai secretly weighed in and decided not to hide it any more as he replied, "In Tian Cheng City, Prince Rui's mansion can still mobilize the army for me, but

He replied, "In Tian Cheng City, Prince Rui's mansion can still mobilize the army for me, but there are only a hundred people, and within the Northern Army, there is about 60,000 people. Earlier, I had already written a letter to let them secretly enter Tian Cheng City in batches, but the Northern Army's station was too far from the capital. Even if the army marches day and night, it will take at least seven or eight days. I'm afraid that Shang Jun can't wait that long. Since ancient times, without an army, it is almost impossible to attack the palace, so I don't know if the lady has other plans?!"

Sixty thousand? A little more than she imagined, no wonder he dared to think about becoming an emperor, but Long Qu Mu wanted him to die! Since ancient times, military power had always been something that made those in positions of power fearful and those who seek power go crazy.

Shu Qing thought about it and replied, "It will take some days for Yu Cheng's army to be transferred back to Tian Cheng city. As long as we can rescue Shang Jun and force Long Qu Mu to abdicate in these seven or eight days, it will be enough. Now, there are two things that are important at the moment. First, clarify the position of Shang Jun! Second, raise and arrange the manpower. However, these can only be solved when everyone is ready. There is still some time until between 11 pm to 1 am, so Prince Rui should count your troops and horses, rest a little, and then we will discuss it later."

"Okay." Long Yi Hai left the flower hall with a smile; after having a brief talk with Murong Shu Qing, he also had another measure of what to do next.