Ch 146.1

Deployment (Part 3)

"Long Yi Hai!"

The two blurted out the name at the same time, looked at each other and smiled. It seemed that the husband and wife had been together for a long time, and they had become more and more tacit.

Staring at the exquisite tunnel map in front of him that he could only imagine its existence, Xuanyuan Yi's blood was surging up, as he sighed, "Such a huge underground tunnel is enough to make any high-ranking person tremble, even if he trusts another person. The existence of the tunnel will also be like a thorn in the back of their mind, but if we use it this time, we will destroy the tunnel, which is really a pity."

Shu Qing nodded, as her face looked dignified when she said, "I'm worried, it's not just that. I know what kind of person Shang Jun is. He doesn't seek wealth, high status, or power, and he only wants to avenge his family. After this, I guess that he will live in seclusion in the mountain forest somewhere, or return to the area where Piao Miao manor is or a place where no one knows him. I am afraid that even if Shang Jun has intentions to retire, but Long Yi Hai has no intention of fulfilling his wish. After all, he can dig a tunnel now, what else can he do later on? No one will now. For the monarch, if some people cannot be used, then they must be killed."

Hearing Qing Er's tone, Xuanyuan Yi guessed, "Are you planning to keep Long Yi Hai from knowing about the secret tunnel?"

Shu Qing nodded affirmatively, "Yes."

Xuanyuan Yi was a little worried, how could she use such a huge tunnel without being known to him. And without military strength of Long Yi Hai, this battle would be even more difficult to fight.

Shu Qing was obviously not worried, and replied with a smile, "Before the Northern Army arrives, Long Yi Hai only has a hundred people under his command. So, what needs to be done by entering the tunnel can be done by the elites of Hai Yu, and there is no need to use him at all." His usefulness within his identity was because he was the only person qualified to force Long Qu Mu to abdicate.

Qing Er was right, so Xuanyuan Yi nodded, gently lifted her up, and persuaded, "You're tired, lie down for a while, I'll study this map."

Shu Qing replied obediently, "Alright." Regarding these map and strategies, Yi would be much better than her. With his help, she felt relieved, and she was really tired.

Xuanyuan Yi helped Shu Qing to lie down on the bed, pulled up the thin quilt, and covered her. He put a soft kiss on the eyebrows before Xuanyuan Yi put down the curtain and walked back to the round table. Fearing that the candlelight would not make Shu Qing sleep well, he took the candle farther away, and blocked the candle with his tall body.

While caressing her hand on the increasingly rounded abdomen, Shu Qing quietly stared at the tall and straight back, with a smile on the corner of her mouth, and closed her eyes with peace of mind.

Shu Qing had always slept well, and after a while after she lied down in bed, he heard the sound of breathing in the bed becoming longer and smoother. Xuanyuan Yi buried his head in the complicated tunnel map, the more he looked at it, the more Xuanyuan Yi admired Shang Jun. The ingenuity of Qing Er's thought was right, if he were a high-ranking official, he would never let such a talent go.

He did not know how long he had been studying the map, when a rustling voice came from outside the door. After listening carefully, he heard Shang Xiao's voice. "Older sister Shu Qing."

Xuanyuan Yi raised his head and said in a low voice, "Come in and talk."

Shang Xiao pushed open the door, saw the curtain hanging down, and did not dare to step forward to disturb anymore. Shang Xiao only looked at Xuanyuan Yi, and asked softly, "Older brother Xuanyuan, is Sister Shu Qing alright?"

Before Xuanyuan Yi could answer, the curtain had already been lifted by Shu Qing's hand, as she smiled and said, "I slept for a while, now I am in good spirits, are they back?" After taking a nap for a while, she felt much better. The child was very good and did not bother her at all.

Seeing that Shu Qing's face was indeed a little ruddy, Shang Xiao's heart that had been holding on to it was relieved, as she replied, "Well, Wei Xi and Yu Feng are back, but I have not seen Pei Che's shadow." She did not know if Pei Che could come back in time?

"Yi, let's go."

Putting the map in his sleeve, Xuanyuan Yi replied, "Alright."

Holding Shu Qing's wrist, Shang Xiao said carefully, "Older sister Shu Qing, I will help you. Be careful." Shu Qing smiled and nodded, and the three of them walked slowly towards the flower hall.

Shu Qing stepped into the flower hall, and the first person who greeted them was Feng Yi, the steward of the Murong family. He thought that he would never see her again in this life, but he could see Shu Qing again today, and his eyes could not help but turn red, "Master!"

Shu Qing smiled slightly and asked, "Mr. Feng, is everything going well recently?"

Feng Yi nodded quickly, and replied with satisfaction, "Young master has been able to do things on his own. He also has invited some masters to teach Miss Xing Yue's lessons. Hong Xiu and Lu Yi are all good."

That was good. Shu Qing's worried heart was also slowly released, so she turned her head to look, and met a pair of eyes that were not sharp, but could not be ignored.

Facing Shu Qing's gaze, Hua Yong Qin nodded lightly, "Miss Shu Qing."

"I'm really bothering you this time, Hall Master Hua." Shu Qing observed secretly that this woman had an ordinary appearance. Even if she (SQ) met her on the road, she was afraid she would not attract anyone's attention. She seemed to lack some of the unique characters to be a hall master, but she seemed like a very wonderful person.

Facing Shu Qing's scrutiny, Hua Yong Qin had a natural expression and replied, "You're welcome, the Master explained that if you have something to do, just say it. Feng Yu Lou building will do it even if we have to go through fire and water, so please don't hesitate."
