

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 147.2

Rescue (Part 1)

Prince Rui's Mansion

"The 300 people led by Liu Guang and Wei Xi have sneaked into the dark prison where Shang Jun was imprisoned, but they have not yet come out. The 1,000 people led by Xi Mu and Pei Che have also destroyed 60 secret posts within the imperial city. The five hundred elites led by Yan Yu have successfully blocked all passages between Tian Cheng city and the garrison, while the three secret edicts have been blocked."

Shu Qing, who had not slept all night, leaned comfortably on the soft velvet couch, as she was listening to Cang Su's slightly excited report on the current situation around 7-9 am. She was listening with a calm face, and no joy.

Xuanyuan Yi was the leader who was the most suitable for the commander's rescue last night. After listening to Cang Su's words, Xuanyuan Yi said calmly, "Very good, let Ye Yan and Yu Feng rescue today."

"Yes." Just as Cang Su was about to leave, Shu Qing, who had been silent for the whole morning, suddenly said, "Wait a minute."

After lowering her eyebrows and thinking for a while, Shu Qing slowly looked at Cang Su and said in a deep voice, "Let Yu Feng keep an eye on every intersection within the ten-mile radius of the dark prison, and never let them run away from other places. No matter what today, I must see Jun; I want to see him if he's alive, and I want to see his corpse if he's dead!"

Live to see the person, die to see the corpse!

Long Yi Hai, who was on the main seat, was inexplicably flustered. They did so much to save that person, in case something happened to him...

He Shao Hua who was in charge of closely protecting Long Yi Hai, also listening to the changes in the situation in the morning. He finally could not help but stepped forward and said, "Miss Shu Qing, there is something I don't know, and I hope you can enlighten me."

Shu Qing turned his head to the side and saw a handsome young and flamboyant face. With a slight sighed, Shu Qing replied, "Please, you can ask your question."

"Since you have cut off the path of Long Qu Mu's rescue, the Iron Armored army lost more than half of their siege this morning. Now is the moment when the Emperor is isolated and helpless, why not let us and Prince Rui invade the imperial city in one fell swoop? But we actually have to make a big splash, and exposing ourselves. After today, if the city guards find out something different, won't we lose this great opportunity and what we are doing now, would be in vain?!" After last night's discussion and arrangement, to today's situation in Tian Cheng city, He Shao Hua also had the same impression to this seemingly weak Miss Shu Qing. He admired her in his heart, but he really did not understand why she wanted to prevent his master from entering the palace at this time?!

She guessed that not only this young man would have thought this, but also the other people in Prince Rui's mansion. Shu Qing sat up slowly, and asked back, "You also said that the escort will come back tomorrow to rescue the palace. Before the Northern Army arrived, there are only more than 3,000 of us together, and we have the upper hand for the time being. It isn't a coincidence that the troops are insufficient, and Prince Rui can't produce any evidence that can prove that he is the real heir to the throne. So, if he invades the imperial city at this time to force Long Qu Mu to abdicate, what do you think the consequences will be?!"

Her tone was cold and shallow, but without any aggressiveness in it, however, it still made the people of Prince Rui's mansion who were in the room, fall into contemplation.

The more he thought about it, the more sinister he felt, so He Cheng could not help but say, "According to what you said, then tomorrow, the Master is not going to face such a dilemma."

He Shao Hua murmured, "As I said, we shouldn't show our face at the end."

Shu Qing shook her head lightly, and was about to explain, but someone was one step ahead of her. Long Yi Hai laughed loudly, "It's the right time to show up at this time. The truth is the truth, and the truth is still the truth." The more open he appeared, the more Long Qu Mu dared not to act rashly. And the more he stayed still, the more terrified Long Qu Mu would be.

As he still did understand the meaning of what the Master said, He Shao Hua asked again, "What about tomorrow?!"

Shu Qing shrugged and smiled softly, "Prince Rui recovered from his illness, and he just gave out some grains from in front of his house. The person who robbed the prison and killed the messenger was not from Prince Rui's mansion. For a while, Long Qu Mu can't find an excuse to deal with Prince Rui. Besides, there will be tomorrow's situation tomorrow, and maybe tomorrow, the guarding garrison of the city won't have a chance to rescue him."

Long Yi Hai seemed to have heard the mystery in her words, and immediately asked, "How do you say this?"

He was very sharp, so Shu Qing did not make a fool of herself, and replied, "Near the Imperial City, there is one more team that can destroy 20,000 garrisoned military in this district."

Long Yi Hai frowned, "You mean, the Xiao family?"

Shu Qing nodded, and Long Yi Hai was obviously a little disappointed, "Xiao Zong Qing went back to intercede in person, but he was under house arrest, so the Xiao family would not help us."

"That's not necessarily true." Shu Qing said confidently, "On this matter, only one person can convince Xiao Zong Han."

"Who is that person?" Long Yi Hai did not know who could convince the Xiao family better than the third son of the Xiao family.

Supporting her body on the soft couch, Shu Qing stood up and said firmly, "It's you! The future monarch of Cang Yue!"

Long Yi Hai was startled; Murong Shu Qing wanted him to follow his ancestors!? She was trying to force him to impress the Xiao family with his strength and other future interests!

Shu Qing was very satisfied; it seemed that she did not have to explain it. Looking at the noon sunlight, Shu Qing smiled and said, "It's almost time, you can go." If he wanted to be the real winner, the supreme king, Long Yi Hai had to fight for it himself, and no one could help him.

"Alright." Long Yi Hai understood that this time was the key to his success. After saying goodbye to Shu Qing and Xuanyuan Yi, Long Yi Hai hurriedly left. But after he was only walking a few steps, he suddenly heard Shu Qing's voice lazily, "By the way, if Prince Rui succeeds, don't forget to remove Xiao Zong Qing out of his house arrest, otherwise I will lose my promise to Liu Guang."

Long Yi Hai laughed; it turned out that she was really fooling Liu Guang in the first place!