

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 152.1

Going Back To Where

"This.... how could this be??"

Under the black iron mask was a face that was burnt by fire, half of the face was unrecognizable as it was completely burnt, but the other half that was not burnt, caused everyone to cry out in surprise.

His rising eyes and straight nose looked exactly like Mo Can's. The difference was that Mo Can was indifferent, but Yan Lie had an evil air (around him).

Wei Na cried out in surprise, "You.... who are you after all?! Why do you look exactly the same as Mo Can?"

"Exactly the same?" Yan Lie's cold and oppressive eyes flashed with a trace of deep hatred when he looked at Mo Can's handsome face. Yan Lie suddenly let out his unrestrained evil laugh and sneeringly said, "You want to know my identity? I will let you know. We are twin brothers and were born from the same parents."

Everyone was not surprised by his words at all, they only needed to look at Yan Lie's appearance, and nobody would doubt that they were brothers. Qin Xiu Zhi thought for a while, and said, "But I heard my father say that the woman only gave birth to one child at that time."

Yan Lie coldly snorted; he also wished that woman only gave birth to one child at that time! Glancing around at everyone, his line of sight finally stopped on Mo Can's face. There was a lot of hatred emerging from his heart and he wanted Mo Can experience a blow after knowing the truth, "Mo Can, ah Mo Can, you actually help them to deal with that person, but (that person) is actually your own father!"

His own father!!

Mo Can was actually Long Qu Mu's son!!

Everyone turned pale with fright, but Mo Can's complexion was still the same as always as he said with a cold voice, "Continue speaking."

I wanted to see once you knew the truth, whether or not you could still have this much confidence!!

Struggling to get free from Mo Can's hand, Yan Lie coldly said, "At that time, even though my old man (their father) had already ascended to be the Emperor, but losing the will and the ruler's jade seal was always a thorn in his heart. In order to look for the stone, he went and looked in Dong Yu and Yan Rui many times. That year he met a woman in Dong Yu, she was overflowing with emotions, elegant and warm, so the two people quickly became affectionate. My old man decided to take her back to the country to become an Imperial Concubine. One day before they returned, the woman took out her own beloved exquisite jade and told him everything about the secret of the jade. As it turned out, that woman's Master (teacher) had accompanied the late Emperor for so many years as a war strategist. In order to get the other piece of the exquisite jade, my old man deceived the woman to steal the other piece, but unfortunately, the woman was rather clever. She could quickly see through his scheme, but at that time, that stupid woman was already pregnant, so she was unwilling to be fooled and ran away. During her journey, he gave the exquisite jade to Qin Xiu Zhi's father and gave birth to me. Afterwards, she escaped near a cliff, but my old man was still able to find her. He snatched me and forced her to hand over the exquisite jade. During the fight the woman fell off the cliff; she probably did not know that there was still another child inside her stomach, as she still gave birth to you after she fell, and afterwards she died."

Shang Jun frowned, there was unexpectedly this kind of matter?! After she fell off the cliff, she surprisingly could still give birth to a child or was this whole thing only Yan Lie's fabrication?!

Pulling at Mo Can's lapel with one hand, Yan Lie was somewhat proud of himself as he laughed heartily and said, "How about it, it is very marvelous, right? You and I were the product of deception and this was precisely the past that you wanted to know."

The ear-piercing laughter shook the inside of the spacious Phoenix Valley; it sounded like an animal claw tearing apart one's heart. Mo Can's complexion was still as icy and arrogant as before, but Wei Na who was standing next to him could feel him still trying to control his chaotic breathing. Glaring at Yan Lie, Wei Na soothingly said, "Can, this person is peculiar, you must not believe him! Actually, looking at you two carefully, his frightening face does not look the same as you at all!"

"Frightening?" Yan Lie glared with his big eyes and approached Mo Can. Their two faces contradicted each other, due to hatred, his burnt cheek looked more and more sinister. "Do you want to know why my face and voice became frightening like this? It is because my old man said that I look like that woman, so he did not want to see me with this face and also did not want to hear my voice."

A tiger, though cruel, would not devour its own cubs!! Long Qu Mu unexpectedly.....

Mo Can's hand was trembling, so taking advantage of this small change, Yan Lie turned around and broke free from Mo Can's hand, as his white shadow swirled in the air. Everyone had not even reacted yet when Yan Lie's figure had already disappeared within the Phoenix Valley.

Wei Na cried out in alarm, "He ran away?!"

Wei Na was just about to chase after him when Mo Can grasped her hand. It was painful, so Wei Na looked at Mo Can and saw faintly discernible blue veins on his forehead, as if he was silently enduring something.

That person was his brother after all and Murong Shu Qing could understand the tangled feelings inside Mo Can's heart, so she shouted at Wei Xi and Yu Feng, who were about to chase him, "Do not chase him, we should take out the will and the ruler's jade seal and leave here, then we can discuss it again."